

The Miessakit Association's Vieraasta Veljeksi project, the City of Helsinki and the Central Union for the Welfare of the Aged jointly organize

An activity group for aged Somali and Finnish speaking men (age 55+)

The ViVe group meets on Mondays 10 am - 1 pm at Malmin virkistyskeskus, Latokartanontie 9, Malmi

The program includes getting together, various leisure activities, trips, excursions, fast facts about Finland and studying Finnish. Lessons in Finnish are given by Elektra Minkkinen. The objective is to become familiar with each other's habits and culture and in this way also to improve the Finnish language skills of Somali men.

The group is guided by cultural interpreter Mohamud Said.

For further information please contact Mohamud Said, tel. 3103 4179, project worker Heikki Kerkkänen of the Vieraasta Veljeksi project, tel. 0447511340 (heikki.kerkanen@miessakit.fi) or Hilka Linderborg of the Central Union for the Welfare of the Aged, tel. 050 357 0768.
